Letter of INVITATION

by the Congress Chair

On behalf of the European Association of Nuclear Medicine, it is my great pleasure and honour to cordially invite you to the 32nd Annual EANM Congress in October 2019. This year, our congress will take place in Barcelona, Spain. The city is world famous for its hospitality, its cultural attractions and its culinary highlights.

Molecular imaging is continuously expanding: it is increasingly being combined with advanced technologies such as artificial intelligence and has become a principal component of medical imaging. In the therapy field, targeted radiopharmaceuticals have been demonstrated to be effective and are increasingly used in a variety of clinical settings, often integrated with other therapeutic options. The ultimate goal is to design personalised, super-selective therapies and to identify more precise means of monitoring response to treatment in routine clinical practice.

In the last three years, the status of the EANM annual meeting as the world-reference congress in nuclear medicine has been confirmed. In order to maintain the high level of excellence, the 2019 EANM Congress will build on the traditions that are highly appreciated by all attendees, with the expansion of newer features. A specific educational track, implemented with the collaboration of the European School of Multimodality Imaging and Therapy, will include up-to-date teaching sessions, enriched pitfalls seminars and Continuous Medical Education interactive sessions. In all these active learning conferences, attendees will have the possibility to enhance their knowledge of multimodality imaging. A careful evaluation procedure relating to the speakers will be implemented in order to gain feedback and ensure that future interactive sessions continue to enjoy a positive response. With similar pedagogic intent, numerous multidisciplinary joint symposia, organised by several EANM Committees in collaboration with our sister societies, will offer an integrative approach to various topics relevant to the state of the art of our discipline.

All these learning sessions will not impact adversely on the predominant role of our Congress, which is to enable oral and electronic poster presentations on the latest achievements in clinical nuclear medicine, science and technology. On the contrary, the oral sessions will be enriched. Rapid Fire sessions will draw attention to the highly rated abstracts in specific fields, with a panel of top-level presentations followed by extensive discussions; this will provide attendees with an integrated and coherent view on a wide variety of topics. Furthermore, the concept of featured oral sessions in which an invited speaker places the presentations into a broader perspective will be generalised to all the other oral presentations. The now well-established tracks M2M – Molecule to Man (basic and translational science) and Do.MoRe (radionuclide therapy and dosimetry) promise to promote high-quality research through interaction between basic and translational clinical scientists and to present the latest achievements and developments in the fields of clinical molecular imaging and nuclear medicine therapy. During plenary lectures, distinguished speakers will address the state of the art and new developments in clinical and allied sciences, covering a broad range of topics with the goal of fostering the provision of the best possible care for our patients. I am particularly delighted that two young but very motivated and highly respected members of our European Nuclear Medicine community, Dr. Valentina Garibotto from Geneva, Switzerland, and Dr. Sarah Schwarzenböck from Rostock, Germany, will provide the traditional Highlights lecture.

For all these reasons, I cordially invite you to EANM'19 to actively participate in our 32nd Annual Congress, to meet and interact with friends and colleagues from all over the world, to discuss science, to learn about the exciting developments in nuclear medicine, to break away from the daily routine and to enjoy everything that the city of Barcelona has to offer.

EANM RESEARCH LTD (EARL)

EARL is a 100% subsidiary of the EANM, which aims to enhance the quality of nuclear medicine practice for the benefit of public health.

EARL Accreditations: enable comparable scanner performance across multiple sites through harmonization of the acquisition and interpretation of PET/CT scans: results can be compared, exchanged and combined, which is essential in multi-center trials as well as in clinical practice. Accurate, reproducible and quantitative assessment is ensured through standardization of methodology, including patient preparation, scan acquisition, and image processing.

DO.MORE TRACK

10th International Symposium on DOsimetry and MOlecular Radiotherapy

The 10th International Symposium on DOsimetry and MOlecular Radiotherapy (Do.MoRe) will take place during the 32nd Annual Congress of the European Association of Nuclear Medicine in Barcelona, Spain, October 12–16, 2019.

The format of the dosimetry and therapy meeting has evolved from a series of interesting and important radiopharmaceutical and dosimetry symposia held approximately every 5 years since 1970. This series was continued at the EANM Congress 2004 (Helsinki) and the SNM Congress 2009 (Toronto). These symposia were formerly known as ISTARD: "International Symposium on Targeted Radiotherapy and Radiopharmaceutical Dosimetry". Since 2015 the symposia have been organised annually in parallel with the EANM Congress and the name has been changed to Do.MoRe, emphasising both the importance of dosimetry and the more regular organisation.

As a separate track within the EANM Congress, Do.MoRe will aim to bring together all disciplines concerned with radiopharmaceutical dosimetry, physics, radiobiology and molecular radiotherapy, stimulating interdisciplinary scientific discussion. Dosimetry is acquiring a more prominent role with respect to not only nuclear medicine therapy but also radiation protection in nuclear medicine procedures. This year Do.MoRe will promote clinical application of dosimetry, both in a CME and a pitfalls & artefact session. Symposia are held on translation of pre-clinical radiobiology into clinical practice and on the recently published ICRP report Radiological Protection in Therapy with Radiopharmaceuticals.

As a prelude to Do.MoRe, pre-symposia are organised on advances in image processing and also therapy specific image reconstruction and segmentation (including deep learning) methods. Another interesting pre-symposium will give an overview of the various projects on clinical implementation of dosimetry in molecular radiotherapy and initiatives to develop accreditation/calibration methods for quantitative SPECT. A joint symposium with AAPM will be organized on linking imaging and pathology results in interventional nuclear medicine. This 10th anniversary will be celebrated a real physics and dosimetry multi-session party.

The EANM Dosimetry, Radiation Protection, Physics and Thyroid Committees will coordinate the scientific programme for the meeting jointly. All organisational matters will be handled by the EANM Executive Office.

A call for abstracts will go out in the coming months. The deadline for abstract submission is April 25, and authors will be notified about abstract acceptance on June 19, 2019.

We look forward to welcoming you in Barcelona in October 2019, be part of it!

M2M TRACK

The 6th "From Molecule to Man" Track, covering translational developments in Imaging and Therapy

The 6th M2M Track will take place during the 32nd Annual Congress of the European Association of Nuclear Medicine in Barcelona, Spain, October 12–16, 2019.

Since 2014, the M2M sessions have constituted a successful track in the programme of the annual EANM Congress. By addressing a wide range of scientific aspects, these sessions have succeeded in attracting scientists, industry representatives and clinicians. A successful stepping stone for translational science has thereby been established. The M2M track actively stimulates multidisciplinary interplay between the various scientific disciplines concerned with molecular imaging and therapy, namely chemistry, engineering, physics, biology and medicine.

The M2M track comprises a series of plenary lectures, CME sessions, symposia and focused scientific sessions, all of which have the aim of connecting fundamental research with unmet medical needs and vice versa.

The EANM Committees for Translational Molecular Imaging and Therapy, Drug Development, and Radiopharmacy jointly coordinate the scientific programme of the M2M track, while the EANM Executive Office handles organisational matters.

We look forward to receiving your stimulating scientific abstracts and hope to welcome you at the M2M Track in Barcelona in October 2019!

Letter of INVITATION

by the Chair of the Technologist Committee

Dear colleagues and friends ,

On behalf of the EANM Technologist Committee I kindly invite you to join us at the 32nd Annual Congress of the EANM that will take place in Barcelona, Spain, from October 12-16, 2019.

A vast number of professionals from the whole world will come together in this unique event, making from this a great opportunity to share knowledge, experience and strengthen bonds. A full programme aimed for Technologist's will be provided, focusing on topics that are of great relevance for the practice on nuclear medicine field, in which the development of science and technology has been great. From preclinical studies to theranostics, without neglecting the importance of patient communication in the practice of the Nuclear Medicine Technologist, many will be the topics addressed during the Congress.

These topics, as it has been in the previous years, will be addressed in seven sessions of Continuous Technologist Education (CTE) and three mini-courses (MC) that will count with specialists of each topic to bring their expertise and knowledge to share with each participant. There will be place for debating and active participation, by the creation of special interactive sessions.

Furthermore, a joint session with the Neuroimaging Committee from the EANM will take place during the congress, aiming for artifacts and pitfalls in brain imaging.

Additionally, as a reflection of the international outreach of the Technologist Committee, sessions will be held with the participation of representatives from our american colleagues of the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging – Technologist Section (SNMMI-TS), as well as with the participation of representatives from the Canadian Association of Medical Radiation Technologists (CAMRT) and Australian and New Zealand Society of Nuclear Medicine – Technologist Special Interest Group (ANZSNM-T). Since the EANM Annual Congress is a great opportunity to share original reasearch and clinical works, due to its visibility and number of attendees, the EANM-TC will be accepting abstracts from nuclear medicine technologists (NMT) and related clinical scientists. To give space to the participants to present the result of their work, three oral presentation sessions and four e-poster presentations will take place during the congress.

Following last years tendencies, we expect these moments to be of great quality and a useful tool to promote and share each other's work. As an additional motivating factor, an award will be given to the best two Oral presentations as well as the best two e-Poster Session presentations. The EANM Office will be receiving abstracts until April 25, 2019.

Finally, we would like to share that the annual Technologist Interest Meeting will be held during Barcelona'19 Congress. All NMT and clinical scientists who are interested in the current endeavours of the EANM-TC are invited to join this meeting.

We look forward to welcoming you to the EANM'19 Congress in Barcelona, Spain.

With my best regards,

Andrea Santos
Chair, EANM Technologist Committee

BARCELONA INFORMATION

Barcelona is one of the liveliest cities in Europe. The opening to the sea, since the Olympic games has only given flair to this already beautiful city, with its mild Mediterranean climate, its unique architecture, and great lifestyle.

For more information about Barcelona visit <http://www.barcelona.cat/en/>

BANKS, CREDIT CARDS & ATMs

Banks are usually open from 09:00 – 16:00 (Monday-Friday) – closed during the weekends.

There will be ATMs (Automatic Teller Machine) in the CCIB or at the nearby shopping mall and all over the city of Barcelona. At the airport, main station and along the main streets you find currency exchange offices as well. All major credit cards, including Eurocard, Diners, Visa and MasterCard are accepted in most of the establishments such as restaurants, hotels, shopping-centres and stores.

Travel checks can be cashed in most of the banks and exchange offices.

When paying by credit card for your shopping, you will be asked to show identification. Please have your ID card or passport with you all the time, other ways they may refuse to accept your credit card as payment.

CHURCHES, SYNAGOGUES, MOSQUES

Although Barcelona (like the rest of Spain) is basically Catholic, all religions are allowed and practised. Please contact your hotel concierge for current times of services or nearby churches.

CITY TAX

In 2012 the Catalan Government approved a new tax on stays. The amount of the city tax depends on the category of the hotel and varies between € 0,75 and € 2,50 per person and night. This fee applies for the first seven nights. For any additional nights, there will be no charge anymore.

CLIMATE

Barcelona enjoys a Mediterranean climate, with short cool winters and hot summers. The location of the city besides the sea increases the humidity level. Generally, it rains with more intensity during the spring and autumn. In September and October the thunderstorms are frequent. Mostly in sunny autumn days in October the temperatures are very nice during the day decreasing at night.

CURRENCY

The official currency in Spain is Euro (€). You can exchange your currency without any limits for total amount at all banks as well as many exchange offices in Barcelona. When you are exchanging your currency, you need your passport or official ID card. If you do not have it with you, the bank may refuse to exchange your currency.

ELECTRICITY

The power supply in Spain is 220/240 V. Most electric outlets adhere to the continental standard (Schuko). Appliances from North America require a transformer and British ones an adaptor for the two-pin sockets in use in Spain.

RESTAURANTS & NIGHTLIFE

One of the main characteristics of Barcelona is its nightlife. The good weather contributes to sit at the terraces of the coffee-shops, bars and restaurants which are opened until very late.

Downtown restaurants normally open for lunch from 11:00 to 15:00 and for dinner from 19:30 to 23:00. Cafes and breakfast bars may open already at 08:00 or even earlier.

There is a great number of "Tapas-bars" where you can enjoy a drink and small "tapa" or "pincho" to eat at any time of the day.

Fast food, kebab, take-away-pizza stalls usually serve food all day long and some of them stay open till midnight. Bars, night clubs and discotheques usually open from 22:00 – 04:00 (some even longer).

SAFETY TIPS / PICK-POCKETS

Barcelona is very safe from violent crime - ranking third in the EU accordingly to the 'Safe Cities Index 2015' by The Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU). But there are many pick-pockets and bag thieves in areas with popular tourist attractions (especially on Las Ramblas street & La Sagrada Familia), in the central subway and the Sants train station.

Therefore, please don't carry your wallet in your back pocket - but in a pocket with a zipper. Don't put phones, cameras etc. on tables at cafés and keep your belongings always on your lap. Carry your backpack or shoulder bag in crowded areas or at street shows always in front of you so you can see it. Be wary of strangers approaching or touching you and do not play any street games. Do not carry all cash money, credit card and ID documents all together in one bag/pocket.

SHOPPING

Barcelona is an ideal destination to shop for a wide variety of items catering to everybody's tastes and wishes. Opening hours of midtown shops are 09:00 to 19:30 (Monday-Saturday). Big shopping malls open until 21:00. On Sundays, small shops are generally closed. Some Malls are open 7 days a week.

TAXES & TIPPING

VAT is always included in the price presented to the customers/guests in shops, hotels, restaurants and other service providers. Non-EU citizens can directly claim back their VAT at the shops (excluding restaurants, hotels and other food) when the total bill exceeds € 90,15. Please ask at the shops for more information. A service charge is not always automatically included in hotel and restaurant bills, it will be stated on the bill or in the menu. Tipping is not mandatory, but a small gratuity (5-10%) is expected in restaurants if good service is received.

TAXIS

Barcelona taxi colours are black and yellow.

Taxis are an affordable alternative to the public transportation. A 15 minutes journey will cost about € 10,00 depending on the traffic. It is not recommended to use taxis in the inner city as a lot of the streets are pedestrian areas and the traffic is quite high. The rates will be shown on the meter next to the driver. The minimum rate for a taxi is € 2,10 plus € 1,07 to € 1,30 per kilometre depending on the time.

Possible taxi numbers are:
 Ràdio Taxi: +34 933 033 033
 Servi Taxi: +34 933 300 300
 Fono Taxi: +34 933 001 100
 Radio Taxi Maramar: +34 934 331 020

TIME ZONE

Barcelona is located in the Central European Time Zone (CET), i.e. one hour ahead of Greenwich Mean Time (GMT+1).

All foreign visitors entering Spain must possess valid passports. For citizen from the European Union Member countries, a valid identity card is sufficient.

Please check the current visa requirements with the nearest Spanish Consulate/Embassy in your country before your departure to Spain.
